What's It All About?

World Kindness Day is a nationally recognised day for the celebration of kindness in society and everyday life. Individual acts of kindness are encouraged on this day too.

Kindness is about being generous, friendly and considerate. Think of a time when someone was kind to you or a time when someone made you feel happy and appreciated. Write a newspaper article to tell everyone about that act of kindness as a way of showing your gratitude.

Caught Being Kind!

